

To strengthen our team based in the Netherlands, we are currently looking for an Controller

Vacancy: Controller
Company: Sempro (The Netherlands/Nijmegen)
Industry: Semiconductor/Machine building

Sempro Technologies BV is fast growing OEM equipment supplier, develops, supplies and services for trim&form equipment for semiconductors. Sempro equipment and solutions play an important role in the roadmap towards cost leadership at our customer assembly sites around the world. Within the Power product segment Sempro is in the top three of world leaders. The Sempro Product Support, Service and Engineering teams are in Netherlands, Malaysia and China. The current organization consist of about 40FTE and planning to continuously grow to stay ahead in the market.

Why work as a Controller at Sempro

- Work for a great company with competitive solutions in de semicon industry
- An opportunity to be responsible for the growth of Sempro
- You can make the difference for Sempro
- You can grow with the company

As an Controller at Sempro, you assist the CTO with monthly and quarterly reports and the budget. You analyze the figures together with the Business Controller and actively think about improving the financial processes.

Function

In the role of Assistant Controller, it is important that you feel comfortable with a 'hands-on' approach and that you flourish in a dynamic company, where procedures are regularly adapted to changing circumstances.

Tasks and responsibilities:

- Carrying out the financial administration
- Monthly reporting of the results to the ManagementTeam.
- Providing solicited and unsolicited advice as a sparring partner for the management.
- Drawing up budgets in consultation with with the Management Team
- Preparation of annual accounts
- Taking care of tax returns
- Maintaining contacts with the accountant, bank, tax specialist, insurer, etc.
- Taking care of the salary administration

Job requirements

- Completed HBO education in Finance, Business Economics or Accounting.
- At least 3 years of experience in the field of Financial Accounting / Control
- Solid experience of bookkeeping and preparation of annual accounts
- Excellent knowledge of Excel
- Contributor to improve procedures and approach

- Competences: analytical, accurate, independent and pro-active.

Offer

- a great position at a dynamic company with growth ambitions
- opportunity to learn and grow in your role
- a competitive salary